Editorial

By the time you read this it really will be NEARLY CHRISTMAS!!! I'm sure preparations are well underway with all presents bought and wrapped and under the tree...or, maybe not?

As you have no doubt seen, our front cover shows our very own modern-day shepherd with his son in the field with his 101 dalmatio- -oops! Sorry, sheep (yes, they have been counted!). So, thank you Stuart, William & John for your time and willingness to help create this December cover.

Next month Abbie Dando will be beginning her stint as our new editor so I hope you will enjoy her contributions and learn a little more about her on page 19 of this issue. Many other reports from our local societies are also packed away here and I hope you may feel encouraged to get involved and pop along to one or two, I'm sure you will receive a warm welcome wherever you go! So I wish you all a Happy Christmas and Prosperous 2020 – I will be back with you all next October!

Community Café 1st Birthday

The Community Café celebrated its 1st year birthday at the beginning of November.

The Café opens every Friday in St Thomas' Church Woolton Hill from 9.30 to 11am to provide an informal and friendly meeting place for refreshments and chat.

One of our regulars Alex Renfrew has a full attendance record, not having missed a Friday coffee since the start and he was therefore asked to cut the celebration cake made for the occasion. He is also one of our star helpers!

Visitors make a donation for their coffee/tea and over the last year these have been shared between local charities chosen by our regulars, and the Church to help with running costs.

Over the year we have welcomed newcomers to the village who have found the Café a good way of getting to know others. Also, local residents are making it part of their weekly routine.

Please do drop in for a cuppa – all are very welcome.

Community Café Team

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

As a local dog owner I have recently been alarmed to see that another (I am assuming) dog owner has taken to cutting the fence wire around stiles presumably to make it easier for their pet but leaving sharp, jagged pieces of wire protruding at eye height, seemingly without thinking of the injury that this could cause not just sheep or cattle that may be in the field but also to their own and other dogs or wildlife.

I am also amazed when driving around the roads of our parish at the number of dog owners who think it is safe to allow their dogs to wander from verge to verge on roads on dusky evenings as if they were on a bridle path. Perhaps they have forgotten that the maximum speed limit on many of our narrow, bendy roads is 60 mph and the likelihood of their pet getting to heel before being squashed is very slender.

National Women's Register

Music & Society

The group considered various types of music and its effect on society – music can reassure, soothe, inspire and educate us. Traditionally, songs were passed down through the generations but, with developing technology, music halls were set up and individual soloists appeared. We recalled many pop groups from our youth such as The Beatles and The Rolling Stones. Listening to the Bee Gees singing 'Saturday Night Fever' brought back memories of the pop concerts we had attended and the 'fashionable' clothes we wore at the time. Needless to say, there was much laughter during this very enjoyable and interesting evening.

Saving the Environment

During our meeting on saving the environment and reducing our personal carbon footprint we considered plastic pollution, saving energy and global warming due to carbon emissions. In the UK, renewable energy has overtaken fossil fuel energy production for the first time since the first UK power plant was fired up in 1882. At present 14 percent of UK greenhouse gasses come from our home and a similar figure from car usage so incentives are needed for more renewable energy and a switch to electric cars. To save our planet for the future—'Live simply that others may simply live.'

Film Night

'Finding Your Feet' was our film choice and stars Imelda Staunton, Celia Imrie, Timothy Spall, Joanna Lumley and David Hayman. It was a treat to watch and the plot was easy to follow so an altogether relaxing experience. It wasn't without its sad moments but plenty of funny ones too with the heroine finally escaping an unsatisfactory marriage as she regains her self-identity and a new life.

East Woodhay Local History Society

Our OCTOBER MEETING was marred by computer problems with hardware and software not wanting to 'talk' to each other! However, our speaker, Jonathan Sayer, remained composed and still delivered a very interesting talk on Greenham Common.

Military camps at Greenham go way back into history but it was earmarked for aircraft use as WW2 approached and the Air Ministry chose it as a site for Bombers. In 1942 the USA opened the first base with an A-shape grass airstrip design for Dakotas to come here before heading for Africa on Operation Torch. 1943 saw RAF Oxford planes come here for night landing training using beams. Glider assembly operations started as well with C47s arriving in 1944 in order to tow them to France for D-Day.

After a period of uncertainty, the Cold War in the 1950s led to the need for sites with capacity for a long concrete runway that could take Jets and Greenham was one of eight chosen. The B47 Stratojet came to the base with a range of 3000 miles and could be refuelled in flight.

By the 1960s the Cold War was thawing and the base entered another period of uncertainty. However, De Gaulle came to power in France and asked the USA to close their bases. They were moved to the UK and Germany with Greenham being kept at low readiness and for storage.

The 1970s saw the start of the International Air Tattoos. Sir Douglas Bader, who lived near Newbury, was its patron and got the IAT to a whole new level with proceeds going towards helping the disabled learn to fly. In 1980 new tensions meant the base was reactivated with the development of cruise missiles. However, Thrust 2 was able to use the runway for the land speed record trials on the 12000 foot runway. Also, the long runway was earmarked as a possible landing site for the Space Shuttle in an emergency.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower addresses Company B, 502nd Parachute Infantry Regiment (Strike), at Greenham Common Airfield about 8:30 pm on 5 June 1944.

The 501st Tactile Missile Wing was here from 1982-1991 with an RAF Regiment providing security. Many of us will remember that period as Greenham Common was rarely out of the news be it with cruise missiles being taken around the area (which they weren't!) or protest events. 1992 saw the final closure due to better relations with the USSR and it was initially returned to the Ministry of Defence before returning to the Local Authority. Several members of the audience related anecdotes from times when the base was active.

Reminder:
There is no meeting in December.

Welcome Abbie Dando!

I am really pleased to be able to introduce you all to our new Spectrum editor for the months of Jan – March. Living as she does on the new side of town with her husband Pete and young children; Jack, not long started school and two year old Erin – I think we will all welcome Abbie with her new outlook and ideas.

Abbie was brought up in Reading – but was fortunate to meet Pete who grew up in Highclere and whose mother was the infant teacher at St Thomas' School – so I'm sure this will be ringing bells for many of you!

During the time that Abbie and Pete have been together, Abbie's parents moved to Woolton Hill. It was therefore, an easy decision for Abbie and Pete to move recently from Wash Common into Woolton Hill itself, making visits for the children a short walk from Grandparents and other close relatives and friends. I gather that there is still a little more unpacking to be done – and then of course, decorating!

Abbie has always had a career in writing (so expect some expert editorials and reports). She started as a copywriter in public relations for ten years plus, before taking a break when Jack came along. Since then Abbie has been freelancing and began a parenting blog*. This led to the London Metro newspaper asking her to do some blogging for them. Nowadays Abbie is working as a freelance copywriter for businesses in the local area, so adding Spectrum to her list of attributes is an exciting and welcome new challenge for Abbie.

As a young Mum involved with similar aged people and a keen knowledge of schools and clubs that youngsters are involved in these days, Abbie is looking forward to bringing this more into focus during her stint as editor. So welcome to the family Abbie and thank you for wanting to be part of this great team!

A Blog: something that younger people know about and treat as normal, whereas most (and I stress most) older folk hum loudly and ignore the word as they guess it has something to do with computers & the internet.*

The East Woodhay Short Mat Bowls Club

The East Woodhay Short Mat Bowls club has now bought new equipment from the S106 funding from Basingstoke and Dean. We have purchased a new Blue mat (club colours) and a mobile stand to roll three mats onto. With the development of the village hall we get a storage cupboard, this lets us easily store our mats on their new roller.

The club is still inviting new players to join. We give full instruction to those who wish to learn the game and have bowls to borrow. We play every Wednesday at EW Village Hall, 7.20pm for a 7.30pm start until 9.30pm. Tea and biscuits mid evening, what's not to stop you coming along!

The Clergy House, Highclere

Dear friends,

The General Election is near. Every election – of whatever kind – matters because the outcome gives to those elected the authority to make decisions and implement policies which have an impact on all our lives – for better or for worse. One issue above all others will have been be at the forefront of recent weeks and will continue to be so for many to come – that of the form of our relationship with the European Union.

It's only ninety years since every British citizen gained the right to vote. My grandmother was among those who campaigned for female voting rights; and, out of respect for granny, I've never failed to vote at every local and national election throughout my life. Please join me in regarding it as your civic duty to vote.

As we approach Election Day our thoughts are also turning towards Christmas and the irony is that our society faces some of the same challenges as did Mary and Joseph. For example: Mary and Joseph had to go to their home town to register for tax purposes; and were probably hungry after a long walk. Today we find people have differing views about what constitutes a fair tax system; and sadly there are more people than ever dependent on Food Banks. Mary and Joseph had no home to go to when they arrived in Bethlehem. Today, some people in the U.K. are struggling to find an affordable home, or worse still, have no home at all and live rough – this is true in Newbury too. After Jesus was born Mary and Joseph became migrants/ refugees as they fled persecution from King Herod. Today we see people fleeing war-torn regions and some of them try to reach our country.

In these and many other challenging situations Christmas comes to remind us that he who came as the Babe of Bethlehem grew to show us how we are to live together and my firm belief is that following him in the way of FAITH, HOPE and LOVE is the best way forward.

Every blessing to you all as Christmas comes.

Local History Society

The East Woodhay Local History Society is conducting a survey into the older houses in our area and we have been putting leaflets through the doors of the older houses in the parish. However, East Woodhay is a very scattered settlement and we apologise if we have missed you. If you haven't had a leaflet but would like to help, these are the things we are interested in:

- ❖ How old is your house?
- ❖ Do you know who lived there in the past?
- ❖ Was your house ever used for anything other than a home, for example as a shop, bakery, workshop?
- ❖ Do you have any photographs or documents relating to your house, e.g. plans or deeds?

If you are able to help us please contact the society:
Either through the East Woodhay website

35 Years Of Walking At Christmas

35 YEARS AGO a band of some dozen residents of East Woodhay, along with pressganged children and dogs decided fresh air was needed in the aftermath of Christmas and set out to walk from Coombe Gibbet back to the Axe and Compass pub in East End. Mince pies were carried in the poacher's pockets of Barbours and restorative libations in hip flasks which were passed around at various stops. The following year the number taking part had grown to forty plus and the year after doubled again with the addition of various grandparents and babes in arms, or rather on backs. Now 35 years on most of those grandparents and all of the dogs are no longer with us but many of the original walkers still take part and are grandparents themselves, and the same pressganged children now bring their own children. Sadly, the Axe and Compasses is no more but has been replaced by the Highclere Red House as the focal point. The Walk is organised by a small voluntary group of John Angle, Ian Briggs and its original founder Clive Sanders. It is open to anyone who wants to turn up on the day. Over the years, numbers have grown steadily to around 200 walkers each year, depending on the weather, peaking at nearly 400 for the 25th anniversary "Downton" walk in 2009. Logistics have become more complicated and we now have to undertake risk assessments etc and carry insurance under the Highclere and East Woodhay Societies to provide the necessary safeguards, but the Walk remains an easy ramble along local roads and footpaths, though stout footwear is advised and pushchairs are not. Dogs on leads are welcome. For the last 15 years we have been providing hot mince pies and mulled wine and other drinks at a halfway rest stop. In return we have asked for donations to a local charity, raising more than £10,000. The food and drink are provided free by generous supporters and the organisers so that all the money raised goes to a charity selected in rotation by one of the organisers. This year Naomi House and Jacksplace hospices for children and young adults is Clive's choice.

The Walk is now something of a local institution. It takes place on the same day each year, the 27th December, regardless of the weather! 35 years on the objectives remains the same as when it all started; an informal opportunity for the whole family to get out and get some exercise and fresh air following the Christmas blow-out, to meet up with friends and to make new ones. We hope you will be able to join us. Friday 27th December. Meet 10.am at The Highclere Red House.

East Woodhay Parish Council

Well here we are again entering the last month of the year and it seems like such a short time since I was last writing a December news item. This must be a sign of my advancing years.

Sadly we have to announce that Councillor Hanne Teece has decided to step down from the Parish Council after 9 years of continuous service. She has been faithfully keeping all our footpaths up to scratch which is no easy matter and has been a key player in the replacement of many stiles with "kissing gates" enhancing accessibility for all. Thank you Hanne. You will be missed.

Hedges.

We are still getting complaints that some pavements are being obstructed by hedge encroachment in the Parish. If your hedge runs alongside a pavement please ensure it is cut back so that there is no overhang of the pavement.

S106 funding.

In previous Spectrum issues we highlighted that £40,800 was allocated to our sports clubs from the S106 contract from the Meadowbrook development. All the submitted projects were approved by Basingstoke and Deane and the local project managers have been busy implementing the activities. Again well done to all the project managers. The update on these projects is as follows:

Bowls Club (£2,800)

A new Indoor Bowls Mat and associated storage equipment has been purchased. The project will be completed next month with the completion of the new storage facilities at East Woodhay Village Hall.

Cricket Club (£10,000)

This is money towards new practice nets for East Woodhay Cricket Club. The total cost of the project is £26,000 and the club is busy raising the extra funding required. Currently £23,000 of the £26,000 has been raised.

They anticipate ordering the nets for early 2020 and expect to draw down on the S106 funds in February

Football Club (£10,000)

This was requested for a pitch aerator and trailer to maintain the football pitch. With the use of the trailer this can also be used for other pitches used by local clubs. The equipment required has been selected and is planned to be purchased in November.

Tennis Club (£18,000)

This is to be used for the replacement of existing floodlights by LED lights. The Tennis Club has agreed a contractor quote for converting existing lights on courts 2 and 3 to LED.

Future Projects

As part of a spend for local infrastructure the council is considering installing a "boules" pitch in the Woolton Hill recreation ground and we would very much like to hear if this idea has community support. Please send comments to the Parish Clerk. We are also looking for ideas of where to site public benches within the parish. Again, ideas/comments to the Parish Clerk please.

October is our "members meeting" – that is a meeting run & organised by the members NOT on the committee.

We had a report by our group representative about the AGM and then the meeting took a practical turn. Sue Waldren from Stapleford had brought a wide selection of beads, some semi-precious and we were all able to make something. Earring, necklaces and brackets were all produced and everyone seemed very pleased with their results. The next meeting is Candle-making – just in time for Christmas.
